Mayor Proclaims Babe Ruth Day

WHEREAS, Babe Ruth Baseball, the youth program with more than 390,000 participants in the 13-18 age group will mark national Babe Ruth Day on August 16.

WHEREAS, Babe Ruth Day commemorates the memory of the famed Babe Ruth who died August 16, 1948.

WHEREAS, In all the history of the sport, no one man reached the world acclaim of Babe Ruth. He was recognized and cheered by millions in America and foreign lands.

WHEREAS, He set dozens of baseball records both as a pitcher and as a hitter. Many of them stand untouched today, thirty years after his death.

WHEREAS, Babe Ruth Baseball also is holding its 28th annual World Series for boys in the 13-15 age bracket this month in Nogales, Arizona. The 16-18 Babe Ruth Series will be held in Newark, Ohio.

WHEREAS, And Babe Ruth Baseball has more than 200 of its graduates on Major League rosters.

I, THEREFORE, Ronald C. Spiggle, Mayor, Town of Appomattox, do hereby proclaim August 16, 1979 as Babe Ruth Day in the Town of Appomattox.

RONNIE SPIGGLE
Mayor, Town of Appomattox

"Senior Citizen Awareness Day" Planned For September 8

"Senior Citizen Awareness Day" is the theme for Central Virginia's first conference on Aging. Sponsored by the Lynchburg Advisory Council of the Central Virginia Commission on Aging, Awareness Day will be held at E. C. Glass, Saturday, September 8, 1979, between 8:30 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

The conference goal is to educate older citizens, legislators, service providers and the general public about the full range of resources and programs available to the Aging citizens of District II.

Everyone concerned about those issues that influence our daily lives is invited to attend and pose your questions to those qualified to assist you.

Remember: September 8, 1979, Senior Citizen Awareness Day!
